

EDP Women Race FAQs

1. Timmings

The Women's Race: EDP Lisboa, Mulher e a Vida has the departure scheduled to 10:30 am on September 12, 2021 (Sunday). We invite you to arrive early, because we have the performance of the guest artist at the place of departure.

2. Departure

The race is started in Santos, at the back of the Kais restaurant, on the tagus river side.

3. Transports

All participants, presenting the participation BIB, can use free of charge the public transport of Lisbon to get to the departure, namely: Lisbon Metro, Buses of Carris and TST - Transport South of the Tagus, and CP trains of the lines of Lisbon, Sintra, Cascais, Azambuja and Sado.

Participants will be able to use the same transports (upon presentation of the participation dorsal) at the end of the race to return home.

4. Finish line

At the finish line, all finalists will be entitled to a participation medal and an arrival kit with water and a piece of fruit. Gifts will also be distributed from the sponsors and the partners of the race.

Prize winners, depending on the classification, will be called to be present on their podiums and receive the prizes they are entitled to.

